Other Victors to be Listed on Saturday

A little girl watching toy soldiers being maneuvered by her brother, is the Grand Sweepstakes Winner in the first annual desert-wide Amateur Photo Contest sponsored by The Desert Sun.

Winner of the beautiful trophy donated by The Desert Sun is Don DuBose, 296 North Palm Canyon Drive.

OTHER WINNERS selected from among the more than 250 entries will be announced in The Desert Sun in its Saturday edition. They will be awarded valuable camera equipment as prizes.

The first annual photo contest was praised highly by all members of the Buck Rogers group of the Photo Dealers and Master Finishers Association of America, who are meeting in convention at El Mirador Hotel.

"It was an amazing tribute to The Desert Sun to have so many entries submitted in such a short period of time as the contest was conducted," was the consensus of all present.

JUDGES OF THE contest were W. E. Griffith, of Griffith Photo Service, Los Angeles, host to the convention; R. J. Wilkinson, Chicago executive director of the Photo Dealers and Master Finishers Association, and Otto Limm, of Limm's Camera Shops, Lansing, Michigan.

One of the many things noted was the large number of color prints submitted, 23, and the number of transparencies, 106.

Al Taylor of Al Taylor's Camera Shop, and Marty Kenyon, of Desert Camera Shop, local dealers, were present at the judging as interested spectators.

HOW EDITORS GET RICH — I have just learned of an editor who started poor twenty years ago and retired with a comfortable fortune of $50,000. This was acquired through industry, economy, conscientious effort, indomitable perseverance and the death of an uncle who left him $49,990.

Santa Fe, the capital of New Mexico, is the oldest city in the United States, there being evidence to show that it was inhabited as early as 1325, or 300 years before the Pilgrim fathers landed on Plymouth rock. I like its narrow streets and old adobe. Today as I strolled near the church of San Miguel, built in 1710, I saw an old man seated outside an old adobe with all his furniture around him.

"Poor old soul. What's your trouble? Evicted, I suppose." "No, sir," was the mournful reply. "It's just my old woman whitewashin' agin'."

Bob Burns Radio Comedian of 1930s, is Dead

HOLLYWOOD — Bob "Bazooka" Burns, Ozark comedian who made a fortune spinning tall tales about his relatives in Van Buren, Ark., died of cancer today. He was 64.

Burns was in a coma since Saturday at West Valley Community Hospital where he was being treated for cancer of the kidney.

Inactive in show business for the past 10 years, Burns was bed-ridden for most of the past five years.

His sly hill-billy humor and bazooka were a national laugh remedy during the depression years of the 1930s. His pipe-and-funnel bazooka and his stories about his Uncle Fud and Grandpa Snazzy were national bywords.

Norway Seizes 15th Red Ship as Invasion Persists

ALESUND, Norway — A vast Soviet fishing fleet brazenly violated Norwegian waters for the fourth straight day today and a Norwegian patrol vessel intercepted another of the "invaders," it was announced.

A total of 15 Russian ships have been seized—many at gunpoint—by the Norwegian navy since Monday.

The temporary naval headquarters set up here at the outset of the Russian "invasion" said the Soviet fishing fleet sneaked into Norwegian territorial waters under cover of night. The communiqué said one of the poachers was captured by the Norwegian auxiliary ship Sarpen shortly before dawn.

The remainder of the Soviet fleet was reported to have retreated again to the safety of the high seas.

A navy spokesman emphasized that the continued violations by the Soviet fishing boats proved Moscow assertions of a "misunderstanding" are wholly groundless.

The latest seizure came even while Norway rejected Soviet demands for the release of the detained fishing boats and their crews.

Civic Council Meets Friday

First meeting of the year will be held by Mayor Florian Boyd's Coordinating Council at noon Friday at the Oasis Hotel.

The Council is composed of presidents, or appointed representatives, of all civic groups in the Village.

Following the luncheon, the group is expected to discuss the $3,555,000 city bond election set for Feb. 14, a plan whereby all groups clear dates for events through the Chamber of Commerce, and the possibility of establishing a Palm Springs Blood Bank.

Supect to Face Theft Accuser in Riverside Jail

A 31-year-old truck driver, accused of stealing Desert Sun photographer Robert Nims' car from the Thrifty drug store parking lot Christmas Day, will travel in police custody to Riverside County jail today to face his accuser, a 21-year-old stable boy now serving a 60-day sentence for petty theft.

Charlie Robert Hall was returned from Phoenix Tuesday after he was accused by Gerald Matthew Evans of being the man who stole Nims' car. Evans drove while attempting to sell a saddle he later admitted he stole.

HALL DENIED stealing the car when he was arrested in Phoenix, saying he'd been in the Arizona town since December 20. He waived extradition proceedings, and arrived in Palm Springs where he readily answered questions in a lie-detector test. It showed Hall probably was innocent of Evans' accusation, but that he did know about the stolen car.

EVANS IS PRESENTLY serving a 60-day term for petty theft. He admitted stealing an expensive custom-made saddle from one Palm Springs stable and attempting to sell it for $100 to another stable about three weeks ago.

The stolen car was the one he drove, transporting the saddle, at the time of his arrest.

Nims has the car now, but some photographic equipment, in it when it was stolen, is still missing.

2 Planes Collide at 40,000 Feet

OXNARD — One pilot was killed but another miraculously escaped uninjured when two Navy jet fighter planes collided at 40,000 feet over the ocean, about 12 miles south of Anacapa Island.

The dead pilot was identified as Lt. Brooke Montgomery, 28, son of retired Vice Adm. Alfred Montgomery, Seattle.

The other pilot, Lt. William Molendoff, Oxnard, landed safely at the Point Mugu Air Missile Test Center following the collision Wednesday.

Rare Spider Bite Paralyzes Lungs

HONOLULU — A Honolulu housewife who was bitten by a rare spider fought for her life in an iron lung today after the spider's venom apparently paralyzed her respiratory system.

Mrs. Ethel Tanabe, 42, was bitten on her hand Monday by a Cheiro-Canthium Diversum spider while she was cleaning a cupboard in her rural Honolulu home.

Several hours later numbness developed and she lapsed into a coma. She was hospitalized yesterday when paralysis developed in her respiratory tract.

Strike-Grounded Village May Get Emergency Air Service

Big 3 Seek New Curbs on Mid-East

Will Consider Steps in Wake of Ike-Eden Parley

WASHINGTON — The United States, Britain and France soon will consider new peace safeguards in the Middle East.

The proposals they will discuss range from having more United Nations observers check frontiers to threatening joint military action against the side starting a new conflict in the Arab-Israeli crisis.

A call for three power talks on the "increased risk of war" in the Middle East was made Wednesday by President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Anthony Eden. It was contained in a final communique on their three days of conferences at the White House.

IN ANOTHER major action, the two Allied leaders warned Red China that any aggression in the Far East would be countered by joint British-American military might. The warning was couched in general terms, but both U. S. and British spokesmen said combined action would be taken if Formosa were invaded.

This agreement assumed additional significance in view of Britain's long-held attitude toward the Nationalist Chinese government on Formosa and threats by the Red Chinese, repeated this week, to take Formosa "by war if necessary."

Although the Eisenhower-Eden talks were over, the British Prime Minister remained in Washington today for separate addresses to the Senate and House. Tonight he will make a radio-television report to the American people before leaving Friday for Ottawa, Canada.

In addition to their communique, Mr. Eisenhower and Eden issued a "Declaration of Washington" designed to show that Russia's new economic aid offers to underdeveloped nations are aimed at political conquest, rather than any humanitarian desire to help out a needy friend. It also expressed the West's desire for peace.

Mr. Eisenhower and Eden said the new three-power talks on the Middle East would cover "action" the Allies would take if force, threat of force or preparations were made by Israel or the Arab states "to violate the frontier or armistice lines." France was invited to join the talks to be held in Washington at an unspecified date.

5 in Portland Killed in Fire

PORTLAND, Ore. — A mother, four children and a nephew who was staying with the family were burned to death last night when fire destroyed their home in the outskirts of Portland.

The father, 50-year-old Arthur Merrill Graham Sr. was the only occupant of the house to escape the blaze.

His wife, Thelma May Graham, 39, and all four of his children were trapped in the inferno, attributed to a defective oil stove.

But he was booked as just being drunk.

The Weather
Desert area forecast: Clear today through Friday. Strong winds San Bernardino Valley and mountains. Sunny today and Friday. Strong northeast winds especially below canyons with local blowing dust diminishing Friday afternoon. Gale winds over ridges. Slightly warmer afternoons but continued cold nights. Highs today near 58-64.

REPRESENTATIVES of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service yesterday afternoon seized Kenny's Koffee Kup, 1107 North Palm Canyon Drive, and closed the establishment for "unpaid withholding taxes" in the amount of $9,000. A public auction, or sealed bid proposal, will be scheduled in the near future. Making the seizure were Melvin Engle, left, collection officer for the Riverside area which includes Palm Springs, and Robert Burgess, collection officer for San Bernardino. Above, they are posting the official reason for the surprise seizure. "Withholding tax is a trust, and non-payment is considered by the government as a type of embezzlement of government funds," the two men said. (Desert Sun photo).

COUNCIL RACE INTEREST PICKS UP; STREBE IS THIRD TO ENTER

Interest in the April councilmanic race was accelerated today with Earle Strebe becoming the third person to announce his candidacy.

Strebe, who currently is serving as councilman in District No. 3, is the second incumbent to announce intentions of seeking reelection. First was Ted McKinney, District No. 1. Only outside candidate to date is Ray Corliss, who is opposing McKinney.

Other incumbents whose terms expire are Mayor Florian Boyd, District No. 5, and Ruth Hardy, District No. 7.

MRS. HARDY HAS taken the matter under consideration, but has not reached a decision, and Boyd has been advised by his doctor that he should have a medical okay before arriving at a decision.

The mayor said that if the physical report gave him a clean bill, and he has no reason to believe it won't, he will join McKinney and Strebe in petitioning in his neighborhood for the token signatures required by law.

OPENING DAY for filing was January 26, and the final time is noon, February 16. The deadline for filing is also the closing date for voters to register for the election.

The other Councilmen, Jerry Sanborn, Frank Miller and Jerry Nathanson were elected to four-year terms in 1954.

Cold Campers, Early Breakfast Alarm Villagers

Campfires in mountains caused some excitement here this week, but it was not a signal of emergency—just an early breakfast.

Nine older Scouts of the Rotary Club - sponsored Troop 39, accompanied by Berger Skjoberg, made the overnight jaunt, traveling five miles up the Skyline Trail.

Arriving at their destination, they bedded down for the night. Some Scouts became cold around midnight and started a fire. Breakfast became the next topic of discussion and a continuous serving until dawn was started.

Villagers saw the fire and reported it to police, but Scoutmaster Clarence Macy had notified authorities of the trip.

Scouts making the trip were Jim Lubach, Bob Landry, Hilton McCabe Jr., David Michel, Bob McKenzie Jr., Newt Skjoberg, Neal Williams, Jefferson Leilly and Billy Moore.

Movie Celebrity Air Excursion Due Here Sunday

Motion picture celebrities by the dozens and socialites from both Los Angeles and Palm Springs will gather at the International Airport in Los Angeles for a flight that will include Sunday brunch at the El Mirador Hotel and an overnight stay at the Sands Hotel in Las Vegas.

Two Western Air Lines chartered DC6B's will carry more than 100 passengers in the flight from Los Angeles in a party hosted by Ray Ryan and Charles O'Curran, stage producer. The excursion will honor Millie Considine, wife of Bob Considine, newspaper columnist.

The party, called the Ryan-O'Curran Round-up, will take off for Palm Springs at 1:30 p.m., arriving in time for the weekly brunch at El Mirador. At 3 p.m., the group will be transported to the airport here in stage coaches for the hop to Las Vegas.

The "uniform" of the day or costume to be worn by those attending will be strictly Western, it was announced.

Dies in Air Crash

HOLTVILLE — A Navy pilot, Lt. (j.g.) Louis F. Bioletti, was killed Tuesday when his AD6 Skyraider crashed and burned 18 miles north of here during a target practice flight.

L.A. Flights Offered City by Catalina

Company Needs No CAB Permit to Operate Here

Emergency air service to Palm Springs to alleviate the travel bottleneck became a distinct possibility today.

Don McBain, president of Catalina Air Lines, has offered to supply daily scheduled service between the Village and Los Angeles, to be started as soon as final details can be arranged.

McBain met yesterday afternoon with officials of the Chamber of Commerce and City of Palm Springs, and today is meeting with his board of directors to complete arrangements.

SERVICE, AS planned, is expected to start within a week, and possibly in a few days.

The air line is not regulated by CAB except as to safety rules, and therefore does not need CAB permission to operate here. All pilots are experienced, with more than 10,000 hours in the air.

The city has petitioned the CAB for emergency service while Western Air Lines is grounded by a strike, but no action has been taken.

PRESENT PLANS by Catalina call for one flight to and from Los Angeles daily, using two-motor, 12-passenger De Havilland Doves.

If the traffic warrants an increase in service, this will be supplied, either by use of larger planes or more flights, McBain told local officials.

"Our immediate interest is breaking the traffic bottleneck to Palm Springs," the air lines president said.

Dr. White Seeks to Record Heart Beat of Whale

LOS ANGELES — Dr. Paul Dudley White, famed heart expert who was chief consultant in President Eisenhower's illness, sailed today on an expedition to record the heart beat of a gray whale, largest of all mammals.

Scene will be the Lower California lagoon where the gray whale cows have their young.

The expedition marks the third time that Dr. White will try to record the heart beats of the 50-ton gray whale. In 1952 he succeeded in making an electrocardiogram of a one-ton white whale off Alaska.

PRESS STOPPERS

GETTYSBURG UP — President Eisenhower has received another communication from Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin, the White House disclosed today.

WASHINGTON UP — Prime Minister Anthony Eden told an applauding Congress today that Britain no longer needs American economic aid. "Apart from a measure of defense aid," Eden said "we now stand on our own feet. We intend to continue to do so."

LOS ANGELES UP — A $1,002,800 suit was filed against the Santa Fe Railroad today in Superior Court by 11 children of a San Diego couple who were killed in a Jan. 27 train wreck.

DOW JONES FINAL STOCK AVERAGES UP — 30 industrials 473.43 up 0.15; 20 rails 158.40 off 0.23; 15 utilities 64.35 up 0.27, and 65 stocks 168.39 up 0.07. Sales today were about 1,900,000 shares compared with 2,010,000 yesterday.

Desert History to be Subject of Museum Talk

B. E. McCown, president of the Archaeological Survey Association of Southern California, will show slides and speak on "The Ancients of the Desert" at 8 p.m. Saturday at Desert Museum.

The association, under the direction of McCown, has been making intensive studies of the early occupation of the desert region, particularly and recently of such occupation around the shore-line of old Lake Cahulla—the predecessor of the present Salton Sea, and the body of water which left the beach lines and "Travertine"—covered rocks so plainly visible at various places south of La Quinta and Indio.

The Desert Museum, a Community Chest-sponsored agency, wishes to emphasize that all programs with the exception of those especially for members are open to the public without charge. All programs, including the Saturday evening lectures, are held in the Museum, although the new schedule of events still lists another location for certain programs.

Yesterday a letter arrived from New York City. It was signed by Francis F. Dobo. He had read a story in The Desert Sun of particular interest to him. (That Desert Sun certainly gets around!) And he quite plaintively asks: "Are you or aren't you the Ward Risvold that I used to know before the war at King Features Syndicate? I remember that my Ward Risvold left one day to take over a weekly somewhere in Wisconsin and how I envied his courage to get out of this town (New York) and strike out on his own. In any case, let me know if this isn't a case of mistaken identity. It would be nice to hear from a long, lost friend."

I STILL ENJOY a tremendous lift in spirit when I walk into the Braemar model apartment-homes downtown and inspect again the beautiful job of interior decorating done by Arthur Elrod. And I've been there umpteenth times!

Johnny Boyle is in Denver to attend the mid-winter party of the Round-up Riders of the Rockies. He will also entertain with that beautiful voice of his and guitar at the stock show in that city, the largest show of its kind in the world.

I WANT BLOOD. Blood for a good cause and a good gal by the name of Evelyn Spikre, city employee who owes seven pints of the life-giving fluid used in her fight against cancer. She is winning and she is broke. She has three more weeks of X-ray treatment and her sick leave pay has expired. Please help a grand gal with a pint of blood. Call the hospital for further information.

Rose Mints at Dorothy Grays came up with a story that really is a lulu and to a considerable extent might make a person stop and think about the unknown (lower case "u" if you please). She remembers when Dr. Stanley Hall predicted that Franklin Delano Roosevelt would run for a fourth term and "if he did," the speaker predicted, "the president would die."

Well we know what happened. On February 5 this same speaker will address an assembled audience in the Campus theater in Los Angeles and his message will be: "National Trends of 1956." Rose Mints will be there, believe you me!

And Earle Strebe, city councilman, as I predicted several months ago, will stand for re-election again. Good boy, Earle!

Tram Service Moves Step Nearer Reality

E. A. Aldridge, operator of Raffles Restaurant whose proposed tram service in the city has been held up through a lack of engineering by the coach makers, today gave orders of full speed ahead for corporation papers to be filed with the California Corporate Commission.

Aldridge, who received the approval of city council in October, last year, pending step-by-step okay by City Manager Robert W. Peterson on policy matters, will confer with Peterson today, and show him the working drawings he received Monday from Ray Shackelford, designer of the Standard Carriage Works, Los Angeles.

The trams, of which five will be used, seat 24 persons, all facing inboard on a horseshoe seat arrangement.

Aldridge said yesterday that he will instruct Saul Ruskin, local attorney to file corporation papers naming Mrs. Aldridge, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Catch, of San Pedro, Ruskin and himself to the board of directors of the Palm Springs Survey Incorporated.

The papers may take time to go through the commission, but Aldridge feels the trams will be running before the end of the winter season.

He said he will wait till the papers have been returned before ordering construction of the units to start. Approval by Peterson will be the first step in Aldridge's plans.

The island of Mauritius in the Indian Ocean was the home of the extinct dodo bird.

JOANNE GILBERT, this year's Cinderella, headlines the next outstanding show at Chi Chi's Starlite Room, starting Friday night. An unknown a year ago, she has just completed a starring role in "Red Garters" and is on her way to movie fame. Completing the outstanding show is the Palm Springs favorite, Paul Gray, the "Hilarious Comedian," and the sensational dance team of Paul Meeres Jr. and "La Raine," accompanied on the bongo drums by "Peanuts," a native Bahamian. (Desert Sun photo).

Joanne Gilbert Headline All Star Show at Chi Chi

Irwin Schuman Friday night will present one of the best all around shows ever seen in his Starlite Room of the Chi Chi, starring Joanne Gilbert, the Cinderella Girl of 1955.

A few months ago an unknown, Miss Gilbert is the discovery of the year in show business. Capturing her first movie starring role within a few months after being signed by Paramount, she has completed "Red Garters," and her next films are "Away We Go" and "Topsy and Eva."

THE DAUGHTER OF Ray Gilbert of "Zipadee Doo Dah" fame, she first made a success as a model, then turned to the theater. First night club appearance was at the Mocambo, and success quickly followed. Her father writes and stages all other material.

The Village favorite, Paul Gray, the "Hilarious Comedian," is another performer on the all-star bill, as are Paul Meeres, Jr., and his exotic dance partner, "La Raine."

Gray will be remembered by local audiences as one of the most suave comic personalities on the stage today.

THE AFRO-CUBAN dance team of Meeres and "La Raine," accompanied by "Peanuts," a native Bahamian, is acclaimed as one of the top exponents of recreating the image of darkest Africa superimposed on the semi-Latin of tropical Cuba.

For the past two years they have made a regular tour of the United States that comes to an end in Carnegie Hall. They have appeared in leading night clubs of Europe, and are featured performers at state affairs in their native land, the Bahamas.

By BILL RASHALL

Is there anyone who doesn't at one time or another boast just a wee bit about her or his accomplishments? That boy Bill Rashall does when he has had two and one-quarter glasses of soda colored with a smidgen of liquid imported from old Scotland.

And if you do not brag a bit about this and that to friends or wife you certainly do to yourself, psychologists will positively so declare.

Did you know that according to psychiatrists an individual is the possessor of several personalities? Believe it or not, they are the personalities that stare back at you from the mirror. The personality you assume when talking to your wife. The one you dress yourself up with when addressing your boss and the one you put on when speaking to a subordinate or employee. And, of course, the one that envelopes you when all mental stops are gone and you are mad. There is no doubt that the most pleasant personality of all is in youth when the bloom of love hits you like lightning.

THERE ARE MORE, these mental doctors declare. Laughed myself into a knot at Paul Gallico's piece about "My Valentine." In it he wrote about the age of his youth when he left the girl he had squirmed that evening to the town's dance, standing at the door. An era when one looked but didn't touch such lovelies. At evening's end it was a polite bow from the hips, hat doffed and some polite nothingness about how pleasant it had been and "may I call again."

Then the famous author went on to say in kind: "If I had only known then what I know today, my sweet Valentines of yore." We who have seen many moons can finish the rest of the thought. And picture the cad who politely kissed his girl goodnight! He was a cad but he knew then what we know today, the smart aleck!

Did you ever hear of the International League for Peace? Mrs. Rita Gray Croston, formerly, she says, the Baroness Kocens who is presently engaged in writing a book right here in our Village. She sings too. Her book will be titled "I haven't Lived In Vain." I have.

ABOUT 18 YEARS AGO Ward Risvold, publisher of The Desert Sun, worked with a newspaperman by the name of Francis F. Dobo. Both were employed by King Features. When World War II broke out Dobo volunteered to fight for the French army. The war raged on. France was invested by the Germans, and Ward believed that Dobo had become a casualty of that great conflict.

Villagers, Visitors Asked to Adopt Western Attire

By JIMMY COOPER
When the phone rang the other day and a staff member of The Desert Sun asked me if I'd do a short bit about western attire and the possibility of reviving "Go Western on Saturday" for the special Rodeo Edition of the paper, I hastily removed my feet from the desk-top and put them back underneath the desk where they should have been anyway. The reason for my sudden embarrassment was because I was wearing "low-cuts," which to a cowboy means oxfords or city shoes.

It suddenly dawned on me that since moving into this soft job at the Chamber of Commerce I had found myself more and more inclined to duds-up in outfits other than boots and levis.

AND THAT SEEMS to be the thing that has been happening to lots of us desert dwellers. I don't know if the reason is that as our Village has grown we have felt self-conscious about dressing a bit different than tourists or if the change from a small village to one of the world's smartest and best-dressed resorts has caused this condition.

The point I'm trying to make is that all of us as individuals should add to the color of this wonderful town by dressing whenever possible in attire that is different than is seen in other towns and cities. One subject of conversation I have noted at gatherings where our out-of-town guests are present is their continual reference to the unusual and care-free garments many do wear. This is one of the things that makes Palm Springs different and would be a shame to see lost.

SEVERAL OF OUR biggest events are this Rodeo coming up this weekend, the annual Desert Circus in April and Western Week in October. For these events it should certainly be a must that all those who possibly can give their appearance a touch of the West. To you businessmen who read this: why not ask your clerks, waitresses and waiters, bartenders, bell-boys, desk clerks and any others to add to the atmosphere in this way. And to you who are residents or visitors in Palm Springs: you'll find a big kick in joining the rest.

So let's all take a pledge to not only dig out the Western duds and boots, but also those beautiful squaw dresses, and Bermuda shorts, colorful golf and tennis clothes and other outfits as the event, season or weather dictates.

Republicans Put Ike's Name in Minnesota Race

ST. PAUL, Minn. — Minnesota Republican leaders announced they are entering President Eisenhower's name today in the state's GOP presidential primary March 20.

Sen. Edward J. Thye (R-Minn.) and other party leaders planned to call at the secretary of state's office with petitions signed by about 1,000 voters to file Mr. Eisenhower's name.

The President's name already has been filed in Illinois and New Hampshire. Plans also are being made to enter him in a number of other states, although he has not yet decided whether his health will permit him to seek a second term.

Piper Laurie Reigns as Queen

Piper Laurie, lovely Universal-International star, will reign as Queen over all festivities of the Palm Springs Rodeo.

Official crowning will be staged Friday evening at the Rodeo Ball at El Mirador Hotel.

Miss Laurie was selected not only for her beauty and acting ability, but also because she is a horsewoman. She will bring her own Palomino horse, "Sonny," to use in the parade and at all other festivities.

Rodeo Ball to be Scene of Queen Crowning

Rodeo Queen Piper Laurie will reign over the Gala Rodeo Ball at El Mirador tomorrow night when the boots-and-saddle set Go All Western in the mood of the Rodeo weekend.

Among visiting celebrities will be Lt. Governor Harold Powers of California, and Lt. Governor Rex Bell of Nevada.

Montie Montana and his famous horse Rex will perform and other trick riders will entertain. Marty, the Human Chimpanzee, is programmed to appear.

In addition to the evening's entertainment, highlighted by the crowning of the Queen, there will be dinner-dancing to the music of Billy Allen's orchestra.

Western dress will be the order of the evening, jeans and stetsons and cowboy shirts, 10-gallon hats and shooting irons, gaily-embroidered skirts and fringed jackets, squaw dresses or square dance dresses, some fancy, some plain.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ryan, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Hoffman will host a table for 15. Others with early reservations included the Co. Thorntons, Ed Robbins, E. C. Youngs, William Reichels, Ed Houghtons, William Malouf, Tom Flemings, E. K. Bishops, and Howard Flint.

Also: Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Fredrickson of Piedmont, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Wuest of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sullivan of Yuba City, Mrs. Gilbert Duffy, Mrs. Thomas Mesdag, and many more.

Navy's 3rd Weather Balloon Test Fails

YOKOSUKA, Japan — The U. S. Navy today launched a third giant weather balloon on a trans-Pacific flight to the United States but "lost" it when the balloon's automatic radio failed to function.

The first of the 20 balloons scheduled to be released in Japan went down at sea some 600 miles northeast of Hawaii. The second crossed the Pacific and landed in Mississippi.

Ventura River Action Nears

WASHINGTON — The House Rules Committee today cleared for House action a Senate-passed bill to authorize the $27,600,000 Ventura River Reclamation Project in California.

The committee proposed that debate be limited to an hour. House leaders will set a day for action later.

The project involves dams on the Ventura River and Coyote Creek to conserve water for municipal use in the Ventura area and for irrigation of some 12,600 acres of land.

The geographic center of Illinois is at Logan, 28 miles northeast of Springfield.

More than half of the nation's service stations have part-time employees.

Area Power Lines Authorized

LOS ANGELES — The Desert Electric Cooperative has been authorized by the state public Utilities Commission to build an electrical transmission-distribution system for its members in their 54-mile long area in Southern San Bernardino county.

The sparsely-populated area runs approximately from north of Morongo to north of Twentynine Palms and is about 13 miles wide. The cooperative will serve some 600 persons now without power.

16,000 Refunds

LOS ANGELES — Robert A. Riddell, district director for the Internal Revenue Service, said more than 16,000 unclaimed checks for refunds on 1954 income tax payments were awaiting taxpayers in his office.

Mounted Police Offers Complete Rescue Service

High in the rugged foothills of the San Jacinto mountains, a young man — trapped as the result of a fall — lies unable to move, and only weakly can call for help.

Passing hikers hear the call and notify the local police.

Standing by, ready on a moment's notice, are the Palm Springs Mounted Police, and as the call goes in for Captain Kenny Paul, the rescue team is alerted by relay telephoning, and 40 members of the organization and thousands of dollars of rescue and emergency equipment are pressed into service.

WITHIN MINUTES the team is on its way to the stranded hiker.

Organized in 1949 as a department of the Palm Springs police, the organization is under the direction of Chief of Police August G. Kettmann and the unit has its own officers including Captain Paul; Joe Butler, lieutenant; and sergeants Fred Ross, Warren Coble and Elmo Purnell.

The Mounted Police are sponsored sors of the annual Rodeo from which the profits are used to purchase additional rescue and emergency equipment. Through the past years the organization has acquired a trailer, completely equipped with emergency equipment, a truck, and a mule. Some of the equipment includes portable radios, first-aid supplies, flashlights and Coleman lanterns; food stock and hundreds of feet of rope. Folding stretchers and mechanical tourniquets were recently added to the unit's inventory, and the men are constantly keeping up with new rescue apparatus.

DR. WILLIAM AIKIN, member of the organization, who has accompanied the team on its many rescue missions, is always one of the first men to reach the victim—he gives first-aid and supervises the rescue trip out.

Chief Kettmann in complimenting the group of men this week, said that the organization was not only very well organized but extremely valuable to the city and county. He pointed out that the unit is not only used locally, but is alerted for major disasters and rescue attempts throughout the county.

The Mounted Police was formed under the State of California Civilian Defense Act and operates under State compensation.

Toughest Stock to Test Riders

The meanest, toughest stock available—geared to a high peak of fresh energy—will test the skill of bronc busters at the Rodeo Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

The Brahma bulls, broncs and string of bucking horses again this year are being furnished by Andy Jauregui of the San Fernando Valley.

DON ADAMS lost out to Tar Baby in the bronc-busting contest at the Rodeo here last year. Top riders of the country come here to compete for points towards becoming the nation's No. 1 Cowboy. This is the first Rodeo of 1956 conducted under the rules of the Rodeo Cowboys' Association.

Two Lieutenant Governors Parade Grand Marshals

An unusual feature of this year's Rodeo Parade will be the two Grand Marshals.

Presiding as Marshals will be the Lieutenant Governors of California and Nevada, Harold Powers and Rex Bell.

Both are well known in this area, having been frequent visitors here in the past.

The Desert Sun PALM SPRINGS, CALIFORNIA Thursday, February 2, 1956

Their presence will add to the traditional fun and glamour of the parade, which features top riding groups, and noted individual riders from throughout California.

Meat Course Reversal

PELLA, Ia. — (AP) — The promotion committee of the Pella Chamber of Commerce held a special meeting to plan a program to help farmers get better prices for hogs. The main course at the dinner was steak.

Pueblo Cold Leads to Fire-Damaged Auto

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP) — It cost Rudy Cruz $40 in car fire damage repairs because Pueblo was the coldest city in the United States Monday with a temperature of 16 degrees below zero.

He lighted a small fire under his automobile engine to warm it so it would start. You know the rest.

Rodeo Week Proclaimed by Mayor Boyd

Mayor Florian G. Boyd has officially proclaimed this week, January 31 through Feb. 5, as Rodeo Week, and urges all residents and visitors to join in the spirit of the festivities.

His official proclamation follows:

"WHEREAS, our Palm Springs Mounted Police annually present programs, the proceeds of which are devoted to local civic and charitable purposes; and

"WHEREAS, said Palm Springs Mounted Police at this time have a program for Rodeo Week, Tuesday, January 31st, through Sunday, February 5, and

"WHEREAS, said Rodeo Week is a program of events worthy of the support of our citizens and Winter guests;

"NOW THEREFORE, I, Florian G. Boyd, as Mayor of the City of Palm Springs, do hereby designate Tuesday, January 31st through Sunday, February 5th as Rodeo Week and do urge all our citizens and Winter guests to attend the events scheduled for said Rodeo Week; and do further urge that during said Rodeo Week all of us Go Western in attire, thereby adding to the color and gaiety of the occasion."

Communists Capture 2 Jap Fishing Boats

NAGASAKI, Japan (AP) — Chinese Communist patrol boats Tuesday captured two 75-ton Japanese fishing craft and 23 crewmen in the East China Sea, a Japanese fishing association reported today.

Miracle Mile Group Backs 4 Bond Projects

Miracle Mile Association has endorsed four propositions of the seven to be presented to voters at the $3,555,000 bond election February 14.

The four endorsed are: No. 1, sewerage system expansion, $1,870,000; No. 2, golf course land acquisition and construction, $750,000; No. 4, airport land acquisition, $400,000, and No. 7, Tachevah flood control, $100,000.

Opposition was expressed concerning the development of McCullum Way, No. 6, $155,000. No definite action was taken concerning the other proposals, No. 3, DeMuth Park land acquisition, $125,000; No. 5, palm trees and lights on South Palm Canyon Drive, and street lights on Indian Avenue, $155,000.

Councilman Jerry Sanborn was the speaker at the special meeting, and explained all items.

The next meeting of the group has been set for February 14.

Jurors Ask Court for Playing Cards

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Women Jurors will have to bring their own cards if they want to play bridge or canasta in Texas jury rooms.

The county commissioners said they would be glad to provide a coffee-vending machine, more comfortable chairs and coat racks but turned down the request for playing cards.

"It would take an act of the legislature to do something like that," said Commissioner Roscoe Minton.

Parade of the Palm Springs Rodeo Saturday will be one of the most outstanding in the history of the Palm Springs Mounted Police sponsored event, Chairman Cliff Campbell announced today. The parade will start at 10:30 a. m., from El Mirador Hotel, and will continue along Palm Canyon Drive to Ramon Road.

Bracelet Hazard

NAUGATUCK, Conn. — Robert Berce was shot in the hand by his girl friend's bracelet. Berce told police one of the charms on the bracelet was a small-caliber cartridge which he feared might explode. It did while he was trying to remove the primer from the bullet.

Trophies and ribbons will be awarded in 19 classes. Included among the many entries are five posers, five bands, silver mounted riders—all recognized as being among the top in Southern California.

Thousands of spectators are expected to line the street to view the spectacle.

Senate Group Spurs Farm Bill

By UNITED PRESS

The Senate Agriculture Committee today planned to begin secret voting on an omnibus farm bill Saturday despite protests from some members that they were being rushed.

The tentative draft of the 109-page bill contained a "soil bank," return to rigid price supports and a two-price system for rice.

of the contract price and a Faithful Performance Bond in an amount equal to One Hundred percent (100%) of the contract price, said bonds to be secured from a surety company satisfactory to the Board of Education of the Palm Springs Unified School District.

The Board of Education reserves the right to reject any or all bids, and/or waive any informality in a bid. No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of 30 days after the date set for the opening thereof.

STILL IN THE DARK — It has been several months since we have had any report on the San Jacinto Tramway. The last news was that plans and estimates were complete and arrangements were being made to issue the revenue bonds. The market for this type of bond was not favorable at that time, it was announced.

People are interested to know and frequently inquire at The Desert Sun as to the present status of the long-projected lift. Little information is given out by the Tramway Authority. It seems that a report on what is causing the delay now should be issued, explaining what the prospects are for sale of the bonds.

Many residents have about given up hope that the Tramway will ever be built. Some information on the subject would be welcomed. It is darkest just before dawn so perhaps some good news is about to be released. Let us hope so!

DE MUTH PARK — One of the smallest but most discussed items for consideration of the voters in coming City Bond Election is the little triangle between Palm Canyon Drive and Indian Avenue at Ramon Road. It has been landscaped and used as a city park for the past two years. It is a beauty spot in the business section and very popular with visitors who pause to relax.

This Indian land is now leased by the city on a short term basis. If not bought by the city it may some day be sold for business development and lost forever as a park. While small, it adds much to the attractiveness of the business area — and is useful as well. As the city grows this little park will mean more and more.

The City Council believed this park site should be included with other items in the bond issue proposals so that people can decide what they would like to do about it before it is too late. They estimate the cost would run about $125,000 but will have to negotiate for purchase of the land, so the cost might not be that much. It is pretty expensive land for a park but would likely cost twice that much in 10 or 15 years. And in 25 years that little park will be worth its weight in gold and a credit to the residents of 1956 who had the foresight to authorize its purchase by the city.

DAILY DOES IT — The popularity of The Desert Sun as a daily newspaper has been so widespread that the owners are glad the decision was made last Summer to make the important change-over. All doubt has been removed that Palm Springs is big enough to support a good daily newspaper.

Many favorable comments have been received on the more timely service being rendered to readers and advertisers. One of the notable examples in improvement is the classified advertising section with its up-to-the-minute listings. Pictorial coverage of last week's golf tournament at Thunderbird is an example of the enlarged local news and picture service.

There is no doubt that Palm Springs is benefitting in many ways by having a daily newspaper. The encouragement and support of subscribers and advertisers has made possible a good daily newspaper for a very fine community. For this, we at The Desert Sun, are very grateful.

NO SUBSTITUTE — There are few things anywhere that the public so takes for granted or misses so much when they are not available as its newspapers. Detroit is the latest city to go through this experience. For 16 days a strike of six printing craft unions has cut off its local paper, and the void this has created can certainly be called aching.

It was exactly the same when newspaper strikes hit New York and London. Used to picking up his paper at the front door or the corner stand, the reader has to work at getting his news by searching out someone who has a copy of an out of town newspaper or hunting one downtown. Extra bulletins on radio and TV stations do come anywhere near filling the gap. They give only snippets and leave unsatisfied the demand for crossword puzzles, comics and TV-radio programs, three features with large reading publics.

Detroit has found that lack of newspapers cripples community affairs. There are no adequate reports on civic doings or group activities. Realtors, bereft of their chief publicity arm, sit idle in their offices. Merchants cannot reach prospective buyers visually at their own firesides. Even funeral directors complain as loudly as the public at the disappearance of obituary notices.

All this illustrates once again the unique and vital role of the newspapers in the modern community, a role little realized until it is interrupted.

USSR-USA IN AGREEMENT — Two Russian editors who visited the United States a short time ago and even made a brief stopover in Reno, have come out with an opinion on that great international topic — American women.

In a Moscow broadcast they said girls in floor shows in the United States ought to wear more clothes. They added, however, that "most American girls are very pretty."

It's refreshing to know that we can agree on something with the Russians.

HELP WANTED COLUMN

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

If the clouds dimmed the sun
As you got up today,
There'll be no more winter...
That's what the groundhogs say.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is being hunt-and-pecked on Tuesday, so I don't know what it's going to be like tomorrow (today—Wednesday) as the sun comes up over Palm Desert, Rancho Mirage, Cathedral City and way stations.

ANYWAY, today, February 2, is Groundhog Day. And the old legend still persists that if the Groundhog sees his shadow on February 2, he ducks back into his lair and sleeps six weeks more. Which, they say, means six weeks more of winter.

Sometimes I think they should make a typographical error on the "lair" and let it come out "liar." Because in the many years I have been dedicating this piece to the Groundhog on February 2, not once has he been right.

GOT SORT OF pushed around when I went to Mr. Webster's compilation of words to look up "Groundhog."

It said see "Woodchuck." So I rambled clear back to the double-y and what happened? It said, see "Marmot."

So back to the "Ms." And found that a Groundhog is a "Marmota monax." A short-legged rodent, yet.

I could have saved myself all of the trouble of wettng my thumb to go through the dictionary.

Because when I went into the classified department and brightly said: "Tomorrow is Groundhog Day," Rita replied: "Oh, you mean people will have pork sausage for breakfast?"

SO ENDS the comments on Groundhog Day.

Dr. C. E. Smith, director of the Desert Museum, spoiled all of the above with one terse word.

Seeking to go on and shed more light on Groundhog Day, I dialed the Desert Museum and asked Dr. Smith:

"Are there any Groundhogs on the desert?"

And all he said was:

"NO!"

THE GROUNDHOG may not see his shadow today but he certainly took me three-fourths of the way through today's column, for which I am deeply indebted to him.

TUESDAY I commented on Harry Oliver's bright green jeep and since then have asked him: "What about that old 1928 Station Wagon? You can't forsake that Desert Rat Scrap Book trademark."

"Never," he answered. "It was pretty badly banged up in that accident but I am having it fixed up as good as new. Going to keep it as a sort of museum piece. Doll it up for parades. The Old West idea. Prospects—you know — picks, axes, water bottles." (Water?)

So — come our parades in the future and the old relic of 1928 will again roll along Palm Canyon Drive.

THIS MAY be of interest to our Mounted Police, who often are called upon to rescue intrepid but unwise mountain climbers. It is from "Philnews," a petroleum company house magazine: "Mountain climbers rope themselves to gether because there is safety in numbers. It also keeps the same ones from going home."

Congressional Report

By Representative John Phillips

We have our new Congressman sworn in, and set up in an office. We had better surround him with the necessary staff, for his ability to acquire and organize a competent staff, and to supervise its work, with a minimum of his own time taken by the routine of the job, will spell success or failure in his new undertaking. Surprising as it may seem, this is not easy.

The routine of one business office is basically the same as any other, modified or expanded by the characteristics of the business or profession. But not here! The new Congressman will have heard from men and women who will want to work for him, or he may have someone who has worked in the campaign or in a California office, and so would like to top off the experience with a job in Washington.

To speak of working for a Congressman suggests glamor, and seeing and even meeting the men and women whose names appear frequently in the news. It is a bit discouraging to discover that while Washington is always interesting, the job itself requires harder work and often longer hours than the same job back home, and that the climate and living conditions are not those of California.

THE PAY CHECK looks large, but after Uncle Sam has taken out a liberal bite, and the secretary has paid for a place to live and for meals, the net amount dwindles to little if any more than the job which was left behind in our Paradise of dry air, sunshine, perpetual summer, floods, smog and dwindling water!

It is this problem of rising costs which undoubtedly brought about the confusing method of paying salaries. If there are two ways of doing something, the easy way and the hard way, Congress will invariably take the hard way. We also lack the courage, as I have written before, to attack such problems as staffing our offices, or retirement or salaries, head on, and solve these details to the advantage of our constituents. We are afraid some opponent will claim we tried to do something for ourselves. The constituents are the ones who suffer from this timidity.

When I came here, a Congressman received an allowance for "clerk hire" of $6,500 a year. All employees are "clerks," since the beginning of Congressional time. We could hire no more than three clerks (or secretaries) and I think the top limit was $3,900 for any one of them.

Today the allowance is $17,500; we have removed the numerical limit, and the top salary which may be paid is $7,000. This is a material improvement but we still do not have the flexibility which would make it possible for everyone to have an "Administrative Assistant" — that is, a competent attorney or engineer or accountant (in an office like this one) who can be a sort of twin Congressman and handle agency contacts, do research work, speak for the Congressman when committee meetings fall at conflicting times and handle a multitude of details, too numerous to list here.

THE AVERAGE OFFICE solves this by having a highly competent "No. 1 secretary, man or woman usually paid the top salary, and two or sometimes three other secretaries to assist with the routine work. I was fortunate, first in acquiring the present staff in this office, and then in having a supplementary clerical allowance, as the chairman, and now as the ranking minority member of an Appropriations subcommittee.

This additional $2,700 has been a life-saver, and the problem of maintaining a skilled and experienced staff should be one of the problems under discussion in the District, even if it is from the new Representative's own pocket, as your present Representative was compelled to do, until recent enlargements and additions to salary and the allowances.

Finally, for this weekly letter, I will try to demonstrate what I mean by "base salary." I told you we never do anything the easy way!

Suppose the new Representative decides that the 29th District will best be served if the office has an administrative assistant, as it has now, and a competent secretary to handle the routine of the office. At the present time I have two other secretaries, Mrs. Spelman, who has been with me for 12 years, and Mrs. Phillips, who handles specialized work, requiring continuity as well as accuracy, and who does my research jobs.

Her salary, by the way, is whatever is left over from the allowance after paying the others! It varies therefore from time to time and I am always amused when key-hole columnists or badly-advised opponents try to make it appear to be a concealed job. There are no such jobs in Congress; we live under conditions which would make a gold fish bowl seem private.

The new Representative will have to discuss salaries with the staff members themselves but he must understand he will be competing with other offices who have occasionally looked longingly on this office and its experienced and competent staff.

LET ME FIGURE for you, in actual dollars, a "base salary" of $6,000. You add 20 percent to the first $1200, which adds $240. You then add 10 percent to the next $3400, which adds $340, and 5 percent to the next $1400, which adds $70. Then in one salary raise bill, we added 14 percent or $981 and in a later bill we added an additional 10 percent. Still another salary raise added $330 and a more recent bill increased the total (up to this point) by another 5 percent. The next increase was a flat $800 and the last year 7 1/2 percent was added.

If you have followed this step by step, you have discovered that the $6,000 "base" has become $10,645.24 and the Director of Internal Revenue already has his hand in the employee's pocket, for a goodly chunk, even before the monthly check arrives.

You can't even figure all salaries by the same formula because that last $800, in lower salaries, is 10 percent and not a flat amount, and the first 5 percent is missing. There are other differences. In short, $6,000 is $10,645.24 before taxes; $5,000 is $9,123.92, and $3,000 would be $5,734.66 and $1,500 would be $3,203.07.

The Representative does not get this money to distribute; he files the names of his clerks and the base salaries and they are paid direct. Any part of the allowance, not used month by month, reverts to the Treasury and is not cumulative.

LONDON. — Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, supreme allied commander in Europe, in a warning against a sense of "false security" on the part of the West:

"The new people are not showing the needle like Joe Stalin, and the tendency is to lull us. They might well succeed if we are not awake and alert to the danger of assuming that this war potential is not increasing."

Reports on Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD—Gene Kelly, who has taken three years to shoot "Invitation to a Dance" for M-G-M, is leaving that studio to make movies independently. Both claim the parting is "amicable." . . . I can remember, in 1953, when the press agents at Warner Brothers wore themselves out trying to plant stories in the various Hollywood columns about two of their unknown young players. The columnists (including me!) had no interest whatsoever in the two. The two: Grace Kelly and James Dean! . . . Overheard at the Mocambo: "A buck won't buy as much as it used to because people won't do as much for a buck as they used to."

One Hollywood agent has made $95,000 for himself in the past 60 days by selling literary properties. He's Irving Lazar and he got 10 percent of all this: Columbia's buy of the Lindsay & Crouse show for the Lunts, "The Great Sebastians," $400,000; Hecht-Lancaster's purchase of Irwin Shaw's "Lucy Brown" for $350,000 and of Clifford Odets' screenplay of "The Way West" for $100,000; and RKO's "grab" of the Ruth and Augustus rewrite of "Morning Glory" for another "mere" $100,000!

Scoop: Jack Benny will retire when he hits the 40 mark! . . . With Esther Williams going dry

(no more swimming pictures) and Doris Day going dramatic (no more singing pictures), what is this movie business of ours coming to? . . . On the set of "High Society" Bing Crosby was telling me about the "good old days"—22-odd years ago, when he was co-starring in "Going Hollywood" with Marion Davies. Marion would arrive at the studio around 11 every morning, Bing said, have some coffee, do one scene, lunch on caviar in her dressing room, and go home at 3 p.m. Bing said, "Now I get here at 8 and leave at 7!"

John Van Druten came out from New York to confer with Jerry Wald about making a movie at Columbia of his flop play, "Dancing in the Chequerboard Shade." It was a dismal fiasco in Boston during its pre-Broadway tryout tour . . . "Friendly Persuasion," Gary Cooper's newest, runs four-and-a-half hours and Willie Wyler is trying to cut it down to two.

Kim Novak is pencilled in for practically every important picture at Columbia. They want to keep her so busy she won't have time to marry Mack Krim . . . M-G-M is pushing Doris Day's "I'll Never Stop Loving You" from "Love Me Or Leave Me" for the best song Oscar . . . The bad publicity about all the bad business in Las Vegas has really hurt the desert resort . . . Red Skelton told me: "That guy I read about in the papers who tried to extort money from Bob Hope must be a raving maniac. Bob's gag writers have been trying to do that for years!"

TV TOPICS

Arthur Godfrey is trying to set up a remote from Hollywood of the Hot Towel Harmony Four for his Talent Scouts. The combine consists of Red Skelton, Billy Gilbert, Jackie Coogan and John Carradine . . . Vagrant thought: If only Janet Dean could be the nurse on Medic! She's understanding, pretty, conscientious and practical . . . Universal-International is listening to offers from TV nets for 20 old musicals the studio owns. They all star Deanna Durbin . . . According to a survey by Pulse, more than half of all housewives watch TV during the daytime hours at sometime during the week . . . ABC is trying to work out a deal with Keenan Wynn and Tommy D'Andrea for a series called Fast Freight, the adventure of long-distance truck drivers.

The list of teleseries being made into motion pictures is growing larger, latest being Wild Bill Hickok with Guy Madison and Andy Devine . . . (Distributed by Chicago Sun-Times Syndicate)

It Happened Last Night

MIAMI BEACH—I winged down to Miami's Winter wonderland for the weekend where the weather was warm—in the 70s—and the hotel feudin' warmer. One hotel threatened to build a very high annex — to shut off the sun from a next-door competitor.

Plenty of money around! John Jacob Astor and date had a $72.00 dinner at the Patio (Sammy Sokol's the host), and at Harry Mufson's Eden Roc—"this year's hotel"—a gal wore an 18-k gold bathing suit.

Mary Healy whispered her "cold remedy." She said: "I put on a spectacular red blouse so nobody'll notice my sniffles."

Rocking chairs in a night club! Jack Benny's double, Murray Franklin, has 'em in his screwball spot, which also has "college pennants" on the wall—from Atlanta, Lewisburg, and Alcatraz penitentiaries. Plus wonderful woman singer Roberta Sherwood. Franklins gags go like this: "When I had a joint at the World's Fair, I sliced the meat so thin we almost missed it."

Al Johnson's great pal, Walter Jacobs, plans a new hotel in Miami—not Miami Beach—probably with pool and heliport . . . Benny Gaines, whose $2,000,000 Sahara Motel-Hotel is a financial success, may introduce motels to France—building the first near the famous Bonne Auberge restaurant outside Cannes and Nice.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . . Errol Flynn had with him around town a doctor—a woman doctor he introduced as "Dr. Doris Du Pont of Montreal." Actually 'twas a gag and she's Doris DuPre the singer . . . Beatrice Lillie'll use Fred Keating as her partner in "An Evening With Beatrice Lillie" in Florida. (Reggie Gardiner was summoned to rehearse for "The Glass Clock.")

Ike's doctor told him the strain of indecision was retarding his recovery . . . Willie Mays' bosses, the N.Y. Giants, are keeping an eye on him—they checked the background of his current girl friend . . . Terry Moore's big new romance (in Cuba and Panama recently) was handsome, wealthy Gene McGrath . . . Pat Ward, of Jelke notoriety, is reported living in Utica, N.Y. . . . Marguerite Empey is playboy magazine's "Playmate" for February, her second appearance there.

Singer Guy Mitchell brushes reports he'll reconcile with ex-wife Jackie Loughery . . . Judy Johnson (of the Bob-T-Q Lewis TV'er) is expecting . . . Pat boss Bob Christenberry sent the Ambassador's chef to prepare the Brazilian presidents inaugural dinner . . . The Yankee broadcast may be co-sponsored by a bank . . . Morty Gunty, opening at the Monte Carlo, gets the honeymoon suite so he can continue his honeymoon . . . Leonard Hall, the GOP's nat'l chairman, will back Nelson Rockefeller in N.Y.'s senatorial race . . . Director Lee Strasberg told a graduating class at the Actors Studio, "Remember—85 percent of the Actors can't act and 90 percent of directors can't direct."

EARL'S PEARLS . . . Walter Cronkite tells how to become a millionaire quickly: "Invent a woman's shoe two sizes larger on the inside than on the outside."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Coby Calloway recalls this truism: "There are two times when a man shouldn't gamble—when he can't afford it, and when he can."

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A local showoff is doing so well that he's wearing the labels of his expensive suits OUTSIDE the jacket.

Arthur (Town House) Schaeffer. Kermit Schaeffer tells of the Arab sheik who explains his bruises: "That's the third wedding anniversary I've forgotten this week!"

Washington Report

WASHINGTON — That old adage "Where there is smoke there is fire" was never more applicable than to those Russian hints last week about arming their satellites with atomic weapons.

President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Eden have an extraordinary Intelligence report stating flatly that Russia has given A-bombs to Czechoslovakia and Red China.

Communist China is credited with having at least 10 of these nuclear weapons. Both Czechoslovakia and Red China have also been equipped with the bombers, crews and technicians necessary for the employment of the A-bombs.

Says this Intelligence report, which is known to top congressional leaders:

"The nuclear weapons have been turned over to Czechoslovakia and Red China in such a way as to permit their use, while the Soviet washes its hands and says it's not responsible for that . . . East Germany is being embarked on a large nuclear program. Virtually all the German scientists whom the Russians took in 1945 are now in East Germany working on this program, which is directly under War Minister Stoph. His technical assistant is Professor Hertz, a Nobel Prize winner for nuclear research. Hertz is running the Communists' nuclear program in East Germany."

Foreign Minister Molotov did the sinister hinting in his speech closing the Prague conference of satellite military chiefs. It was a typical sword-rattling harangue, but was particularly significant because of the intimations about arming the satellites with nuclear weapons.

This is the first time a Kremlin czar has talked that way.

Further, Molotov's ominous remarks follow a previous claim by Marshal Ivan Konev that the Soviet has "surpassed" the U.S. in the development of these weapons. Konev is head of the so-called Warsaw alliance of Russian and satellite military forces.

These public pronouncements are viewed as definite confirmation of the authoritative Intelligence report.

Congressional officials have also been informed there are "reliable indications" the Soviet has staged another atomic test. The last one was announced in November by the Atomic Energy Commission.

As reported in this column on December 2, that explosion was the second mightiest in history—the equivalent of more than 12,000,000 tons of TNT. It was the most powerful thermonuclear (hydrogen) bomb so far tested by the Reds.

The U.S. detonated the most devastating of all in the South Pacific on March 1, 1954. It was the equivalent of fifteen to seventeen million tons of TNT.

Note: President Eisenhower and Eden have agreed to exchange scientific and military observers at the nuclear tests of the two countries this spring. Those of the U.S. will be conducted in the South Pacific in May, by a Joint Task Force commanded by Admiral Byron H. Hanson. There will be air drops by the Air Force, with planes and crews especially selected for this purpose. Britain will stage two sets of tests, both in Australia. The first will be in April, at the Monte Bello Islands. The second in May at Maralinga, a new proving ground 500 miles west of Woomera. The British will explode a hydrogen weapon.

BOILING OVER — Meanwhile another kind of explosion is on the verge of taking place in the Joint Congressional Atomic Committee.

It's that long-seething feud between Senator Clinton Anderson (D-N.M.), chairman, and Atomic Commission Chairman A. Lewis Strauss. Their backstage rowing has reached the point where it's about to explode with a loud bang. Capping their sizzling clash last week, over Strauss' speech in Albuquerque, Anderson's home town, in effect questioning his word, is the following incident: Anderson sent for a study that had been prepared by Commission experts. Before transmitting the report, Strauss ordered it stamped, "secret," thus barring any of the information from being disclosed, regardless of the justification of this secrecy.

Several days later, Anderson was visited by Atomic Commissioner John von Neumann, one of the most brilliant nuclear scientists in the world. During their discussion, Anderson mentioned the study.

"I've gone over it several times," said Anderson, "and I am utterly unable to understand why this information should be classified as secret. There is no valid reason that I can see."

"You are entirely right," replied von Neumann. "There is nothing in the study that requires classification. There is no military information in it, and I know of no reason why this information shouldn't be made public. This paper wasn't classified the last time I saw it. There was nothing secret about it then."

NOTE: Dr. von Neumann has been gravely ill, but is slowly improving.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

THE LEADING MAN in a touring Feuer and Martin show behaved so shabbily to a young lady in the chorus that he was dismissed summarily by telegram. That night he phoned the producers a long distance and wailed, "How could you do this to me? Wasn't I giving a satisfactory performance?"

"Your performance onstage couldn't have been better," they told him, "but we fired you because in private life you are the most unmitigated scoundrel we have ever encountered."

"Thank heaven!" exclaimed the actor. "You've made me feel like a new man again!"

Abe Burrows' new song bears the enchanting title of "I'm So Miserable Without You, It's Just Like Having You Around."

"Show me a good loser," challenges Paul Gilbert, "and I'll show you an idiot."

Bachelors' Table is Well Filled

The Bachelors' Table in the Garden Room at the Palm Springs Biltmore was the center of attraction the other evening. Actor Tom Neal, who will soon produce and star in "Four Twenty A. M.", hosted a party which included Jerry Miggins, who is associated with the Desilu productions; Joseph Parkovich, All-American halfback of the University of Michigan; and Jean Robinson of New York City. Also at the table were M. B. Hicks, owner of the Thunderbird Hotel, and Jack Walsh of Las Vegas; Fred McFarland and R. B. Ross of Vancouver; Milton F. Page and Walter Marty of Las Vegas and Palm Springs.

Others enjoying the Garden Room were Dr. and Mrs. Charles Mills, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rawlinson of Salem, Oregon; Mrs. Roy H. Simmons of Palm Springs; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Rennick, Dr. and Mrs. Wallace Roy of Toronto, Canada.

Hotel guests included Mr. and Mrs. Sol Schwartz (he's president of RKO theatres), of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Stirling Eaton of Plymouth, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hatland of Palos Verdes Estates; Paula Trent, well-known for her appearance on "Mystery Theatre" and "Racket Squad"; Mr. and Mrs. James S. Burkett of Beverly Hills.

Style Show at Ranch Tomorrow

Originals from French Couturier Andree of Palm Springs and hand-blocked prints by D. D. and Leslie Tillett of New York will be presented at the fashion show luncheon at 12:30 tomorrow at the Palm Springs Ranch Club.

The Hal White Trio will play for the show which will be modeled by Barbara Foster, Pam Mix, Mary Farmer, Frances Manington and Chris Haskell. Bob Fisher will model the men's wear.

Maitre d' Roy Bradley said yesterday that there were over 100 advance reservations for the show.

Squaw Dress Show Tomorrow

Colorful Squaw dresses from Alpha Sportswear will be modeled at a luncheon showing at Howard Manor tomorrow at 1 p.m. at the Indian Fashion Festival.

The romantic Squaw dress, which plays such an important role in the desert wardrobe, will be shown in styles designed for around-the-clock wear and include a number of fascinating cocktail and dinner-dance models.

The show will be commented by Alyce Walker and modeled by 10 Villagers, Lynn Jennings, Janet Harris, Ida Keeney, Barbara Schneider, Frankie Phillips, Shirley Larkin, Tami Boyle, Michelle Ailor, Suke Woodcock.

Soroptimists Have Visitors

The monthly business meeting of Soroptimist International of Palm Springs was enlivened Tuesday by the presence of several visiting Soroptimists who told of activities in their home clubs. Mabel Shewalter, Blanche Brown and Ina Peterson represented the Downey Soroptimist Club. Dorothy Forrester was present from Vancouver, B.C. Eunice Tiss from Coahuila Valley Soroptimist Club and Bonnie Welch from Brawley.

Letters were read from Twin Pines Boys Ranch and from St. Helens, England, thanking Soroptimists for gifts at Christmas-time.

On Feb. 7, Wynne Hammond will present a young tenor, Gil Paquette, who is now an airman 3rd class with the U.S. Air Force. Five of Mrs. Hammond's scholarship winners in voice will also be heard in new songs. They are Tommy and Dickey Canby, Rosanne Sullivan, Gary Beebe, and Tommy Pickell.

Eastern Star Meets Tonight

Palm Springs Chapter 576 Order of Eastern Star will hold a stated meeting this evening at 8 p.m. at the Masonic Temple, 1006 East Ramon Road. ## First Nighter Dinner is a "Sell-Out"

It was another sell-out for the popular "First Nighter" dinner before the opening of Edward Everett Horton in "White Sheep of the Family," presented in Palm Springs Playhouse and produced by Herb Rogers. This Tuesday's First Nighter dinner, which always is sponsored by Palm Springs Playhouse Guild, was held in Howard Manor.

Mrs. S. P. Manasse was hostess this week and presented corsages to her three assistant hostesses, Mrs. Dolph Oberget, Mrs. William Malouf and Mrs. Belmont Sanchez.

Among the over 160 guests present were Millie Considine, wife of noted columnist, Bob Considine, with Dorothy Gray's party. This week had an interesting sprinkling of persons from all over the world. Mrs. F. C. Blue had the Spitzers visiting here from Ohio, while the Lowell Washburns had Mr. and Mrs. Donald Goodrich, of Brazil. In Mrs. Noble Banks' party were the H. C. Thorntons of Ottawa, Illinois, with Mrs. John Blish and Mrs. Frank Payne. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall had seven guests from Denver.

A party of six with Miss Betty Lacy included Mrs. Jeanette Lippincott, Mr. and Mrs. William Brill and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cameron. Mrs. Mike Lyman was joined by Mrs. William H. Simon, Mrs. L. Strauss of New York City, Mrs. Joseph Grabner, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Mort Kalis and Mrs. Don Gilbert.

The John Luccarens had Ginny Simms and Michael Ferrall. Mrs. Lloyd Frank entertained Mrs. Robert Blowney of Seattle and Mrs. Lee Ashman of New York City. With Mrs. Homer McKee were

"TEAHOUSE OF THE AUGUST MOON" was the dinner table topic when this foursome dined at the Doll House, for they will soon start filming that play, which will be made in Japan. They are, from left, William Myers, assistant producer, Director Danny Mann (the did

'White Sheep' with Two Top Stars Amuses First Nighters

The aging Horton is still a master of comedy and extracts full flavor from his role. Laura LaPlante, dimpled blonde star of silent movies, is still a darling and looks good. It is a little surprising to find her cast as the maid, but she plays it well.

The play is an English drawing-room comedy which starts out sedately enough in the home of a justice of the peace and a church warden (played by Horton), with his pretty wife (Lillian Bond), and his daughter, dressed for the opera (this was Marrian Walters). The vicar (Wheeler Dryden), epitome of all gentle, absent-minded silvery-haired men, comes to call and everyone drinks lots of coffee (this is England?).

Mrs. Harrison Leussler and Mrs. Marie Cales.

Others present were Dr. and Mrs. Henry Dollard, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Bishop and six, Mr. and Mrs. Merton Wade, Mr. and Mrs. Donovan Peters (Berkeley), Mr. and Mrs. Val Blatz, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Betcher and guests, Mrs. H. W. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. John Kenaston, Ed Dillon, Dr. and Mrs. Willy Perez and guest; Mrs. Harrison Fisher, Mrs. Norman Waters; Mrs. W. J. Summerbell, Mrs. Jesse Hill, Mrs. Eleanor McCown, Mrs. Jewell Vencil (Holtville), Mrs. Charles Fletcher and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. T. M. Broderick, Dr. and Mrs. Scofield (Sacramento), and others.

Next week's First Nighter dinner is set for the Racquet Club with Mrs. Thomas Fleming as hostess. That night the group will meet for dinner before the premiere showing of "The Rainmaker," which Herb Rogers is to produce in Palm Springs Theater-in-the-Round. Those wishing to attend the popular First Nighter, sponsored by the Playhouse Guild, are urged to make reservations early by calling the Guild office at Palm Springs 4440 or the Racquet Club.

John Bryant to be Speaker at DHS Feb. 4

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — John W. Bryant, chief engineer of the Riverside County Flood Control and Water Conservation District, will be the speaker at a meeting of the Desert Hot Springs Improvement Association to be held this Saturday evening at the Improvement Association Hall.

Bryant is expected to discuss county plans for flood control and water conservation in this area, in the light of the aerial survey of DHS made last Fall at the authorization of the county planners.

The flood control chief also is expected to discuss plans for the

It will be preceded by a pot-luck supper for members and their guests only.

PALM DESERT

By GRETCHEN CHEESEMAN

Distinguished visitors, W. Newbold Walmsley and wife, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stoessel. Mr. Walmsley is the Minister Counselor of our Embassy in Moscow, U. S. S. R. He was the former ambassador to Ecuador.

The Center, a new Palm Desert shopping spot on Highway 111, had its formal opening Saturday afternoon. Coffee, punch and cakes were served to friends and customers. The Center includes the Hackborns, Decorators, a Pastry and Sandwich Shop, Gift Shop, Forrester White, Realtor, John Meyer, designer, and Elora Kenyon, hair stylist. An outdoor "desert plant" nursery is also included.

Mr. and Mrs. George Walling have returned from a two weeks visit in Atherton. They will occupy their desert home for the next two months. Mrs. Ellen Walling West of Menlo Park and her son, Brian West, will spend two or three weeks with the Wallings.

Some very interesting and unusual guests are staying at Gates of the Desert this week — The unusual, four generations of a family in one spot at one time—Mrs. Beatrice E. Outouse, great grand mother; Mrs. William B. Forler, grandmother; Mrs. Robert H. Garvin, Jr., mother, and her baby son, Jess. This "four generation" family live in Seattle.

Other guests are Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Warburton of San Mateo, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Merriman of Hickman, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Haslan of Arcadia, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Ohling of Salem, Oregon, and Mrs. Ohling's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Schilling of San Marino, Mr. and Mrs. Kellerman and two daughters, Thelma and Sally of Claremont, Mr. and Mrs. E. Mickel of New Orleans and Mr. and Mrs. M. North of West Los Angeles. Most of these folks attended the Thunderbird Tournament.

The Epsilon Sigma Alpha International had an installation at Shadow Mountain Club Thursday night. Mrs. Wittshire, president of the Zeta Kappa Chapter of E.S.A. of India, installed the new pledges: Doris Brady, Gertrude Cable and Edna Scanlon. It was a very gay as well as serious occasion and there were over thirty in attendance.

Banks Murray and Robert Martin, of Parthenon Pictures of Hollywood made a commercial film at Shadow Mountain Club this weekend. Mr. Murray is a former resident of Palm Desert, where his wife and three daughters settled on their return from a two year film making assignment with the Department of State in the Near East.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Kapp of Walton, Indiana, will spend the Winter in California. They will divide their time between their son, Hal Kapp in Palm Desert, and daughter, Mrs. Donald Alton in Los Angeles.

Pan-Hellenic gave their big party of the year Saturday Night at Shadow Mountain Club. About forty members and their husbands enjoyed a dinner dance. The members come from the entire Coachella valley. This group does a wonderful work in encouraging local girls to attend big colleges and to join national sororities.

Dr. Marian Gallaher and Dr. Martin Blazina, both resident physicians at Los Angeles County Hospital, spent the week-end with Mrs. E. Reichert on Joshua Tree Street.

Seen luncheon on the terrace at Shadow Mountain Club on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. F. May of Palm Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Hadden of Capistrano, Mrs. Eleanor Germeaux, Mr. and Mrs. Levan Saegar and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Blackin of Kansas City, Kansas, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Crandall of Palm Springs and Palo Alto.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudd Hackborn had many guests this week from near and far — Mrs. Hackborn's aunt and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wright of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Townsend of Pacific Palisades, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jacobs of Kitchener, Ontario, Canada, Mr. and Mrs. George Lawrence, III, and Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Lindang, both of Manhattan Beach, and Mr. Hackborn's sister, Mrs. Margaret King of Los Angeles.

Board Irked at Expenses, Asks Report

PALM DESERT — Payment of three claims for expenses were held up by the supervisors this week and the warrants were referred to the county administrative officer and a "full and complete report" requested on each.

A bill from Shadow Mountain Club for 12 roast beef dinners at $4.25, totaling $51 irked Supervisor Warren, especially as he said two of the 12 people supposed to be present were not there.

Supervisor Warren said neither Coffey nor Rose were present.

"They were eating kind of high off the hog all right," said Supervisor Jones.

A CLAIM BY Harvey O. Platt, director of Communications, for meals over a period from December 15 through January 20 for his employees, was deemed by Supervisor Warren as "not explicit enough."

Charges of $18 for use of a room for three days at the Mission Inn during a convention in Riverside, plus $18.96 for meals and an item of $14.17 earmarked as "miscellaneous" including $9 for registration fees for judges, marshals and constables, drew fire from Supervisor Anderson.

"The idea of paying for a hotel room at a convention right here in their own home town," he scoffed.

Mr. and Mrs. John Papp and their daughter, Joanne, went into Los Angeles last Monday and Tuesday. While Mr. Papp attended to his duties with the Lloyd Pest Control Co., Mrs. Papp and Joanne visited with relatives. They were overnight guests of Mrs. Papp's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steinmetz, who are planning to move into their new home next door to the Papps.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Mills left Friday afternoon for San Diego to spend a long weekend with their son's wife and children. Their son, Lt. Com. Warren B. Mills, has been sent on a tour of duty in Japan.

Mrs. Audrey Wolfe has returned from Woodland Hills after spending a six weeks' vacation there. Her sister, Mrs. Cox, spent a few days then with Mrs. Wolfe at her home here.

Mrs. Helen Hyde made a hurried trip into Los Angeles Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Vantine, Portland, Oregon, are staying a month at the El Descanso Motel. They have been traveling all around looking for just the right place to stay and when they came into the desert here they said "This is it." They hope to find a home here to come to for Winter residence.

Ray H. Perry, San Bernardino, visited in our community Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. George McEwan has returned to her home, after staying for over two months with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Arthur Dietrich, at Carlsbad, New Mexico. Mrs. Dietrich died after a long illness.

Mrs. Emma Hawkes and her daughter, Dorothy, entertained their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Pedro Galang, of Hollywood. Mr. Galang was a well-known dancer in show business and Miss Hawkes was the accompanist.

Confound it, man, I asked for Canada Dry!

Perfectionists have to be humored. You may as well give them the best, or they'll give you no peace. Naturally, perfectionists expect perfect drinks. Naturally, perfect drinks call for Canada Dry, whether your choice is Ginger Ale, Club Soda or Quinine Water. Smart people the world over prefer Canada Dry Beverages. They want them. And they are not going to be happy without them.

MATCHLESS flavor... exclusive formulas... long-lasting "Pin-Point Carbonation"... brisk dryness... guarded purity. Taste for yourself why Canada Dry Ginger Ale and Club Soda are the largest-selling in the world and why Americans use more Canada Dry Quinine Water than all other quinine waters combined. This kind of recognition is not achieved overnight. It is built on half a century's devotion to quality.

Flesch Enters Not Guilty Plea

Robert Vincent Flesch, 31-year-old Cathedral City waiter, pleaded not guilty this morning before Judge Eugene Theriault's Palm Springs Municipal District Court to a charge that he was intoxicated while driving a car that crashed into the rear of another auto, causing a passenger in his car to be injured.

Flesch, who was arrested after the collision Tuesday night at Sunrise Way and Ramon Road, was bound over to trial Tuesday at 10 a.m. in Judge Theriault's court, and his bond to appear was set at $1,000.

Robert Sauble, 38, of Palm Springs, was riding beside Flesch, according to police report, at the time of the collision, and was thrown into the windshield, suffering cuts and bruises.

The auto allegedly hit by Flesch was driven by a San Bernardino student, who was not injured. Police said his car was the last of three stopped at the intersection, waiting for right-of-way before proceeding.

Suicide Threat Ends in Arrest

LOS ANGELES—Wade T. Harris, 35, La Quinta, had the Los Angeles police and fire departments in a dither yesterday.

After touring various restaurants and bars for two nights, Harris told a minister friend in his hotel room that he was going to end it all by leaping from the window.

The friend, the Rev. A. L. Brasswell of Indio, tried to change the visitor's ideas.

Harris cried at the man to be left alone, so Rev. Brasswell summoned the police.

When detectives arrived on the scene with the fire department they broke into Harris' room while firemen waited in the street. At the sight of the officers Harris became very cooperative.

St. Louis' Italian Dinner is Success, 550 are Served

CATHEDRAL CITY — The fifth annual Italian dinner, held by the Women's Guild of the St. Louis Church this week, was listed as a huge success with more than 550 dinners being served.

Chef Roger of the La Quinta Hotel was credited with doing a wonderful job of supervision in preparing the meal.

The hall at the church was decorated in the national colors of Italy.

The next dinner to be held by the group will be during the third week of March and will be a ham feast.

With the number of persons attending each of these annual affairs, Father Joseph Leissler of the Cathedral City parish sees more than 700 persons attending the events in the future.

Stork Luncheon for Mrs. Ewert

A stork shower luncheon honoring Mrs. Edmund Ewert Jr. was held at Desert Air Hotel Thursday afternoon. The affair, co-hosted by Mrs. Michael Buccino and Mrs. Thomas R. Campbell, was one of the most delightful afternoon occasions at the hotel this season.

Floral streamers of sweet peas extended across the table to the focal point, a large stork of white tulle. After enjoying a delicious luncheon, beautifully wrapped gifts were presented to the honoree.

Guests included Mrs. Harry Voelker, J. Bradley Davis, Sidney Greenleaf, Robert Wagner, Edmund Ewert Sr., Edmund Ewert Jr., and Mrs. Frances Knox.

Police Search with Bad Check Warrants for 2

Police today are searching in the Los Angeles area for two persons, a 25-year-old studio scenarist of Beverly Hills and a 30-year-old North Hollywood resident who last month signed three checks totaling $123.90, and were later returned by banks who would not honor them.

Stanley Spiegelman, co-owner and operator of the Rossmore Hotel at 1450 North Indian Avenue, signed complaints against Allen Baruch and Dee Delaware yesterday after he had been unable to contact them by phone regarding payment.

Baruch, who told Spiegelman he wrote for a movie studio, last month paid for his $43.90 lodging bill, and a $47 clothing bill at a downtown haberdashers, with checks which were returned by the bank they were drawn on, stamped "non-sufficient funds."

Miss Delaware, who paid her $33 lodging bill three months ago with a check which was later returned from a North Hollywood bank marked "account closed," has been the object of Spiegelman's continued attempts to exact restitution without filing criminal charges.

Beverly Hills and Los Angeles police are cooperating with Sgt. Ted Greene in his search. They have been unable to contact either to date.

Suspect in Gun Case Given 60 Days Suspended

A 21-year-old recent Navy discharge pleaded guilty to a charge of carrying a concealed weapon in Judge Eugene Theriault's Palm Springs Judicial Court after he was arrested in front of the home of his estranged wife's parents and found with a cocked .45 cal. automatic in his waistband.

Judge Theriault sentenced Philip Lewis to 60 days in county jail, and suspended the term provided Lewis not drink nor commit any crime within the next year. Lewis and his wife are expected to separate permanently. The gun was confiscated.

LEWIS, WHO received his discharge from the Navy about a week ago after two years of honorable service, was charged with carrying a concealed weapon after the automatic was found to have an empty chamber in front of the cocked hammer. There were seven bullets in the clip.

According to police reports, Lewis had last week followed his estranged wife, whom he married when she was 14, while she was riding in a car with a group of friends. He reportedly took chase, forced them to stop, and told his wife to leave their company and get in his car. He was said to have brandished a gun. She got in his car.

MONDAY, POLICE were called and told that Lewis was waiting at the home of his in-laws, and Mrs. Lewis and her parents were afraid to go home alone.

Officers accompanied them, and when they arrived, found Lewis, sitting in a chair in the front room. They said they asked him outside, asked if he had a gun, and took the automatic into custody with Lewis.

Lewis, a gardener, had never been in any trouble before "the law in the 14 years he's been in Palm Springs."

Staying On

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. — Nine out of 10 men and women who have been treated at Grand Rapids' Alcoholic Center since it opened last September have remained "on the wagon" after leaving, clinic officials said. The center is the first municipal clinic for alcoholics in Michigan.

THRIFTY CLERK Velma Hilliard helps Manny Borun, vice-president of Thrifty Drug Stores company, post the Olympic Games announcement in a local store. Thrifty will give away a trip for two to the Olympic Games via Pan American World Airways as one of the major prizes in their "Lucky Leap Year" promotion.

Thrifty Offers Sensational 'Lucky Leap Year' Giveaway

Local residents today were invited to participate in one of the most sensational give-aways ever held by Thrifty Drug Stores. Entry blanks and full details of the exciting "Lucky Leap Year" prizes are now available at the Palm Springs store, it was announced.

Grand prize of the month-long promotion is a trip for two to the Olympic Games in Melbourne, Australia. The winners will leave Los Angeles on a Pan American World Airways Clipper, fly to Sydney, Australia, and transfer to Melbourne. After seeing selected Olympic Games, with plenty of free time in between for sight-seeing or additional games, the winners will return to Los Angeles on the Pan American Clipper.

ANOTHER GRAND prize in the contest is a fully equipped Chevrolet station wagon, ideal for large families, camping or hunting trips, suburban living, and full utility use in addition to passenger car comfort.

Ten "Lucky Leap Year" contestants will win deluxe 1956 Starline gas ranges by O'Keefe & Merritt.

Visitor Recovering from Heart Attack

E. J. Beardsley, 65-year-old visitor from Bellevue, Washington, suffered a mild heart attack while watching a movie at a theater at 810 North Palm Canyon Drive Tuesday night, and today is recuperating in his apartment at 526 Warm Sands Drive.

His attending physician reported that his convalescence is progressing satisfactorily.

Mrs. Beardsley called police when her husband suffered the attack, and an ambulance was dispatched to take him home.

The couple had planned to stay in the Village for about a month, but Mrs. Beardsley said yesterday they will stay longer if necessary. They may call one of their children in Washington to come here to drive him home, to save him the chore.

Patrol Gets Snow with Summer Pants

RALEIGH, N.C. — Snow fell here recently for the first time this winter.

The State Division of Purchase and Contract at the same time announced the purchase of $17,000 worth of summer uniform trousers for State Highway Patrol and Wildlife Resources Commission officers.

High School Highlights

(This column, submitted by the High School Journalism Department, was written today by Alan Miller.)

After the shock of semester grades last Friday, Palm Springs High School students are just settling down to the swing of things again.

The Senior Formal held in the American Legion Hall Saturday night was a great success. From 8 p. m. to midnight 75 couples danced to the music of Joe Garcia and his band under beautiful decorations carrying out the surprise theme of "The Mardi Gras."

The March of Dimes is also on here at school sponsored by the Journalism class. Two students representing each class are circulating around the campus with donation cans for their respective classes. The class winning the contest will be determined on a percentage basis.

A GROUP OF 360 Riverside County secondary school students and representatives from Corona to Blythe met at the fourth annual P. T. A. secondary school conference here at P. S. H. S. last Saturday.

They adopted a resolution urging that child labor laws now in effect be revised to lengthen the number of hours a teenager may work and also lower the minimum age restrictions now placed on child employment.

Those present selected delegates to the Governor's Conference on Youth. Kenny Reich, Palm Springs High ASB president, was named as one of the alternate student representatives who will take this and many other resolutions to the Governor's conference to be held in Sacramento April 4 and 5. Those representing P. S. H. S. at the conference were David Fisher, Kenny Reich, Buzzy Rosin, David Self and Roger Williams.

THE ENTIRE student body is excited and extremely happy at the announcement that the School Board approved the master plans and the cost estimates for the administration unit and science wing and authorized architects to go ahead on preliminary plans and estimates for the new music room and auditorium.

SPIRIT IS AT an all time high. For the first time in many a year pep assemblies are being held for basketball games and there are Sock Hops after Friday night home games, the first time in six years. Following much confusion last week, the Sophomores cancelled this dance because of insufficient funds. However, there will be a Sock Hop in the cafeteria after the San Jacinto game tomorrow night. Admission is 50 cents stag and 75 cents drag and the dance will continue until 11:30.

The Tigers from up Mt. San Jacinto way journey down here tomorrow night for the game that will probably decide the RCL basketball title. Both the Varsity and the B game promise to be thrillers. The public is urged to attend and the newly formed drill team will give their first performance during the half time.

The C and D squads will face Banning this evening on the local court in the fifth of a six game series in hopes of winning. Swimming and track practice have just begun with the boys looking forward to a prosperous season.

TRYOUTS ARE being held for the senior play, "Ever Since Eve," to be produced March 9 and 10 at the Frances Stevens auditorium.

Dick Blackstone, Lloyd Brubaker, Sue Cable, Joanne Cameron, Bob Colven, Barbara Cooper, Marvin Gallorani, Clark Gardner, Merry K. McGahey, John Martin, Ricki Metz, Marilyn Mills, Phyllis Peeler, Helen Portnoy, Buzzy Rosin and Carole Wrahlall are the ones trying out for this romantic comedy in which there is a number of cases of love and puppy love.

Posting of Lettermen around the gym floor to keep students off the basketball court at pep assemblies and home games was one of the items approved at the monthly meeting of the Lettermen's Club. The Varsity stars also agreed on a new official Lettermen's jacket.

The Juniors are rightly proud of their new sweaters which have just arrived. The emblem, designed by Josie Garnica and chosen from the many designs entered in the junior class emblem contest last year, is a red, white, and black peace pipe on a white background. Quite a few of the juniors, instead of ordering sweaters, bought jackets which are made of heavy wool with a satin lining and are reversible.

CLASSES ARE NOW making future plans for the annual GAA Carnival coming Friday night, March 16. Each class and school organization has booths and concessions around the pool area like a circus midway. Ten per cent of the profits go to the GAA, but the booths make the rest. Preceded by a Mexican dinner and followed by a dance, this year's carnival promises to be the best yet at P. S. H. S.

A completely non-sectarian Bible class has been formed here at high school with all welcome to join. It is composed of a group of students who every Thursday have a pleasant orderly meeting with song and prayer the main activities and a class advisor is always present.

The Student Council has decided to hold its meetings in room 12 and invites different study hall classes each time they meet to give the whole student body a chance to see how their Student Government functions.

They have formed a permanent student conduct committee, composed of appointed members of the Council and one non-member to deal with smokers, boy-girl relations, and other student problems on campus.

That highlights the activities at P. S. H. S. Watch this column for further school news.

SCENE OF MANY riding activities and gatherings is this setting which includes the Smoke Tree Stables, operated by Ken Johnson, and the Smoke Tree Western Shop, operated by Arch and Frieda Starrett, newcomers to the Village. The stables and western shop are located next to the entrance of Smoke Tree Ranch and are open to the public (Desert Sun photo).

Union Agrees But Continues Strike

VERNON — Members of the United Auto Workers remained on strike today at the Studebaker-Packard Corp. plant here even though having agreed to accept a 21-cent package offer from the company.

Robert Slater, union representative, said the union agreed to the money package Tuesday, but also voted not to work without a contract. He charged the company with trying to "take away certain seniority, transfer and displacement rights which workers have enjoyed for many years."

The union set up picket lines at the plant Monday, idling some 700 workers.

The label features the brand name 'Scott's Emulsion' in a stylized font, with 'Scott's' in a smaller font above 'Emulsion'. Below the name is an illustration of a man in a hat and coat, carrying a very large fish on his back. The text on the label is partially legible but mostly obscured by the image quality. The bottle is shown from a slightly low angle, emphasizing its height.

Fed Up Pastor Raps Hooliganism at Wedding Rites

LONDON IN—A British churchman today laid down a code of etiquette for wedding ceremonies.

"I am appalled and often sickened by the shocking behavior" at weddings, said the Rev. G. S. Crookshank of St. Andrew's Church.

Among Crookshank's pet peeves are:

Bridegrooms who sit in a front pew smoking cigars while waiting for the bride.

Brides and grooms "laced up" with strong drinks before the services.

"Catacombs" from the audience during the ceremonies.

Crookshank expressed hope that his words "may shame some people into behaving less like hooligans or a tribe of monkeys and more like decent men and women—even if they are not practicing Christians."

HOME WITH A VIEW

It's in Little Tuscany, of course. The sliding glass doors from the master bedroom lead to a private patio — the living room glass doors lead to another to take full advantage of the view. A flagstone fireplace spills out into the living room and dining area. This two bedroom,
 L shaped living room and dining area. There are walled, landscaped gardens just beyond the glass walls of the baths — and marble (well, maybe not real marble) shower walls and the same "marble" is used for the free form pullman sink. This is a Little Tuscany home you can afford.

$32,500 UNFURNISHED

Income Property

Four Unit Income property, on a corner. The lot is big enough to expand the building. Each apartment has a private patio, the shrubbery and landscaping are complete, even has a sprinkler system. The units are all rented —
 The price is $42,500, furnished

Exclusive

Adlai, Warning of Overconfidence Lets State Know He's Available

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson, warning Democrats against overconfidence during the forthcoming election campaign, took his own advice to heart today.

Stevenson, now touring California in an attempt to win the state's 68 Democratic convention votes in the June 5 primary, made the most of every chance to meet local party leaders and the public.

Today, for example, he scheduled a press conference, planned to attend a reception by 200 members of a San Francisco Welcoming Committee, and meet this afternoon with key Northern California campaign supporters; and later with 250 labor representatives.

TONIGHT HE will speak at a box supper at Bay Meadows race track in San Mateo.

The former governor of Illinois carried out a similar schedule in Oakland yesterday and last night. In a speech at Oakland Auditorium he told an audience of 3600 an open secret:

"I seek the presidency of the United States."

"I do not say I am qualified. Anyone who says he is, lacks the first qualification: Humility."

"But I am available."

IN AN address to 150 labor leaders at the AFL-CIO Labor Temple, Stevenson issued his warning about overconfidence:

"Our situation in the party is not as easy as it might seem," he said. "From what I have observed so far on my current trip, possibly there is too much confidence in the party. I'm afraid it is not justified."

He said the Democrats have a "very tough fight" ahead of them in the forthcoming election.

SUPPORTERS of Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) meanwhile announced they will continue to charge Stevenson is the "candidate of the bosses" even though Stevenson said on his arrival in California on Tuesday that such charges were "unworthy and unfair."

Stevenson and Kefauver are vying for California's convention votes. Both men will appear before the convention of the California Democratic Council in Fresno Saturday.

Although the council will not endorse either man, the impression each leaves will be considered crucial to his chances of winning support among party leaders in the state.

Rabbi Rosenberg to Speak Friday

Rabbi Leon W. Rosenberg will speak on "World Brotherhood: Report on a Mission" at Sabbath services Friday night at the Jewish Community Center, Temple Isaiah, 332 West Alejo Road.

The subject will cover Jewish life in the Scandinavian countries as seen last summer by the participants in the Travel Seminar of the National Conference of Christians and Jews. Rabbi Rosenberg was a member of the group.

Adult classes are scheduled at 8:15 p.m., Monday, Feb. 6.

Cold, Snow, Sleet and Rain Plague Nation

Sub-zero weather numbed most of the Rocky Mountain and plains states today and rain drizzled in near or below freezing temperatures in sections of the Middle Atlantic states.

A snowstorm that left up to several inches of new snow in the Eastern Great Lakes and Ohio Valley area yesterday turned to rain as it moved in the eastern section of the country and spread from Pennsylvania to Florida.

BUT IN New York state heavy snow warnings were issued by the Weather Bureau which said accumulations of 4 to 8 inches could be expected in the northeast part of the state. Up to 6 inches was forecast for Western New York state and from 1 to 3 inches in the southeast.

Snow, sleet and freezing rain were forecast for Southern Michigan and sections of Virginia and Southern Missouri.

A COLD WAVE warning also was issued for the southeast half of Wisconsin and Northwestern Illinois for tonight. Light snow falling in the area was expected to end during the day. Motorists in Northern Indiana were advised to use utmost caution because of a mixture of snow, freezing rain and drizzle falling in the area.

Below-zero temperature readings were recorded from Minnesota west into Central Washington and Oregon and south as far as Colorado and the Texas panhandle. It was below freezing in Northern Arizona, West-Central Texas and New Mexico.

Big Piney, Wyo., registered 32 degrees below zero today after a 40-below mark was recorded yesterday.

No Literature is So Good as Your Own

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. William Langer (R-ND) sat alone in the Senate yesterday and listened rapidly to the proceedings.

Chief Clerk Emory L. Frazier was plodding through a 93-page speech about alien property.

The author: Langer.

The North Dakota Senator had clerks read his speech because he has eye trouble. Soon he was the only one listening.

Democratic leader Lyndon Johnson about page four asked Langer if he would call off the reading. Langer refused.

Warren Spurns Award Protests

SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP)—Chief Justice Earl Warren said today he will pay no heed to protests urging him to refuse an honorary doctor's degree from Puerto Rico University because Spain's chief justice is to be similarly honored.

Mr. Warren said he did not receive a message from local Freemasons and Protestants urging him to reject the degree, and added "I would have come to Puerto Rico even if I had."

The Chief Justice arrived last night in preparation for Saturday's award ceremony.

Clerical Error on Blood Type Fatal to Patient

SAN DIEGO (AP)—A typing error by a hospital clerk was blamed today for the death of Mrs. Audrey Dumas, 41, who died 13 days after receiving a transfusion of blood which did not match her blood type.

Mrs. Dumas underwent surgery Jan. 17 for a nonmalignant tumor and the following day was given a transfusion of "A" blood. Her blood was type "O-positive." She died in County Hospital Wednesday.

Dr. W. W. Stadel, director of county medical institutions, said the mismatching was traced to a typing error by a clerk.

Rebuked Drinker Proves a Point

TAVARES, Fla. (AP)—Bob Pepper of Lady Lake, Fla., wished today he had heeded a judge who warned him he would wind up in a cemetery unless he stopped drinking.

Police, who arrested Pepper Wednesday for driving while intoxicated, said his car had wrecked a $400 tombstone in the Lady Lake cemetery.
